

Encouraging students to become leaders in our increasingly globalized society who can take on domestic and foreign agricultural issues

Through project based learning, students build these 5 skills:

Finding issues, Problem solving skills, Logical Thinking, Skills in presentation, Activeness and cooperativeness

Collaboration with Kyoto University through video conference system

Theme of studies

3rd Grade: Agriculture in Keichiku

Make some suggestions for developing and improving agriculture in Keichiku, based on the former 2 years' studies

2nd Grade: Domestic Agriculture and Agriculture in Pacific rim

Study about sustainable agriculture and solutions for aging of farmers and finding successors

1st Grade: Agriculture and other industries in Keichiku

Study about local agriculture and industries, find issues and make some suggestions for solving them

Global supporters

Agricultural Department of Fukuoka prefecture

Neighbor Cities

Yukuhashi, Buzen, Miyako, Chikujyo, Kouge, Kanda, Yoshitomi

JETRO

AEON

JA

NISSAN MOTOR

KYUSHU

TOTO

Trip overseas

Fieldwork in Hawaii and Australia

- Visit universities and learn about agriculture abroad
- Fieldwork in farms
- Exchanging ideas with local high school students

SGH subjects

SG English

Intensive English Training Camp

Global Skills: English competency, global perspective, cultural enrichment

SGH subjects

- SG Explore on Modern World
- SG Explore on cultures

Logical Thinking

- English debate

Special Lectures

- Special Lectures from global leaders

Grass-roots movements

- Presentations for local people
- SGS (super global senior)
SGJ (super global junior high school)
SGE (super global elementary school)